

Presidents of the
LOS ANGELES COLLEGE OF CHIROPRACTIC

- October 18, 1911 Charles A. Cale, D.C., N.D. charts the LACC, is president and majority stockholder
- 1913 A.W. Richardson, D.C. claims to have become president of the LACC when he bought the Cales' business assets; however, the Cales never surrender their corporate charter for the LACC
- April 2, 1917 Charles A. Cale, N.D., D.C., Ph.C. (D.O.?) re-activates LACC corporate charter by paying small franchise tax penalty; Charles A. Cale is president of the LACC
- 1923 Linnie A. Cale, D.C., D.O., N.D. becomes president of LACC
- June, 1924 Charles H. Wood, D.C., N.D. becomes owner and president of the LACC
- circa 1929 Wilma Churchill, D.C., N.D. becomes owner of the LACC, continues as Secretary of the College; former husband Charles H. Wood, D.C., N.D. continues as president until at least 1945
- August 21, 1945 Charles H. Wood, D.C., N.D. is president of the LACC; Wilma Churchill is secretary and owner
- 1946 unknown president of LACC (perhaps still CH Wood?)
- May 8, 1947 Charles Von Walden, D.C. is (Acting?) president of the LACC; Wilma Churchill is secretary and owner; College is sold on this date to non-profit corporation, California Chiropractic Educational Foundation (CCEF); LACC becomes non-profit subsidiary of CCEF
- 1947?-1948? J Ralph John, D.C. is president of the LACC; some confusion in this period between president of the college vs. president of the CCEF Board of Trustees vs. chairman of the LACC Board of Regents
- July, 1949 Ralph J Martin, D.C., Ph.C., N.D. is "school president" of the LACC
- 1952? Sidney W. Milbank, D.C., formerly chairman of the CCEF Board of Trustees (?) and/or president of the LACC Board of Regents (?) becomes president of the College
- unknown Robert Hastings, D.C. serves as LACC president?? (according to Haynes GH. Chirogram 1974[June]; 41[6]: 9)
- 1963?-1972? Vierling Kersey, Ped.D. becomes president of LACC; in 1973 Kersey becomes president of LACC Board of Regents?
- March, 1974 George H. Haynes, M.S., D.C., N.D. becomes president of the LACC
- June, 1974 George H. Haynes, M.S., D.C., N.D. is president of the LACC; Vierling Kersey, Ped.D. is president of the Board of Trustees of California Chiropractic Colleges, Inc. (formerly CCEF); Ralph J. Martin, D.C., N.D. is president of the LACC Board of Regents

Joseph C. Keating, Jr., Ph.D.

(408) 395-3605

-
- 1976? A. Earl Homewood, D.C., N.D., LL.B. serves briefly as LACC president?? (see Rehm, 1980);
George H. Haynes, M.S., D.C., N.D. becomes "President Emeritus"
- 1976 W. Heath Quigley, D.C., M.A. becomes LACC president
- February 1, 1980 E. Maylon Drake, Ed.D. becomes LACC president
- 1991 Matthew Givrad, Ph.D. shakes the LACC to its foundations!

JoJoseph C. Keating, Jr., Ph.D.
(408) 395-3605

---

National Institute of Chiropractic Research

To: Reed B. Phillips, D.C., Ph.D., D.A.C.B.R., President (FAX: 310-947-7863)
Marie Oliva, Registrar
Joseph Laurin, Ph.D., Director of Admissions & Institutional Advancement

From: Joe Keating, Ph.D. (Home Phone & FAX: 408-395-3605;
Palmer/West: 408-983-4000; FAX: 408-983-4017)

Date: February 18, 1992

Re: Presidents of the LACC

---

Here's the best I've been able to do on short notice; hope this helps. Please note question marks in text, which indicate areas of uncertainty.

Congratulations to the new President of the LACC!!!