

Lillard T. Marshall, D.C. at left

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE:

YOUR MRS. husbands and brothers who are standing today upon the battlefields are fighting for more than victory in war. They are fighting for a new world of freedom and peace.

We, your MRS. has been placed the responsibility of leading the American forces, appeal to you with all possible earnestness to increase our funds to the fullest extent of your capacity.

Give us not only the needed implements of war, but the sustenance and housing of a united people as necessary to hasten the victory and speed the return of your fighting men.

William Keating
1000 1st St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.
Attendant

