

Photo on left appeared in The Chiropractic Journal (NCA) 1933 (Oct); 1(10): 21; journal caption reads: "Here is a close-up view of the 'Chiropractic Special' on the C.&N.W. and U.P. to the Great Denver Convention. Dr. and Mrs. G.A. Vannette of Hart, Mich., are on the rear platform. Note the special Chiropractic sign designating this as a National event. A splendid time was enjoyed by all."

The Chiropractic Journal (NCA) 1933 (Sept); 1(9): 15; journal caption reads: "PRIZE WINNERS IN THE NATIONAL 'MOST PERFECT BACK' CONTEST. (Left to right) Miss Colorado (Wanda Evans of Denver) won fourth prize, a Chiropractic Scholarship; Miss Iowa (Louise Goodwin of Baxter) was awarded first place with the title of 'Miss Perfect Back of America for 1933', $500.00 in cash, a Chiropractic Scholarship, and a huge silver trophy properly inscribed; Miss Wyoming (Maysie McKay of Cheyenne) won second prize of a beautiful Diamond Ring and a Chiropractic Scholarship; Miss Nebraska (Marcella Gish of Omaha) was awarded third place with a Gold Wrist Watch, and a Chiropractic Scholarship. Winners all - salute them!"

This photo appeared again on the cover of The Chiropractic Journal (NCA) 1933 (Oct); 1(10); journal caption reads: "FIRST FOUR PRIZE WINNERS IN NATIONAL 'MOST PERFECT BACK' CONTEST IN DENVER." (Left to Right) Miss Colorado (Wanda Evans of Denver) was given a Scholarship in the Eastern Chiropractic Institute of New York City; Miss Iowa (Louis Goodwin of Baxter) won the title of 'Miss Perfet Back of America for 1933' and selected the Scholarship offered by the Lincoln Chiropractic College of Indianapolis; Miss Wyoming (Maysie McKay of Cheyenne) chose the Scholarship donated by the National Chiropractic College of Chicago; Miss Nebraska (Marcella Gish of Omaha) received the Scholarship awarded by the New York School of Chiropractic of New York City. We salute them all as future members of this great profession! The Scholarships were in addition to the many other valuable prizes awarded at the great Denver Convention."

“Miss Ohio, Irma Huntress Harshfield of Oak Harbor, Ohio, winner of Ohio ‘Most Perfect Back Contest’ will represent that state in the National Contest at Denver, August 13-20”