A large, ornate, vintage-style advertisement for 'The Palmer School AND INFIRMARY OF CHIROPRACTIC'. The text is highly decorative, with 'The Palmer School' in a large, flowing script. Below it, 'AND INFIRMARY' is in a smaller, blocky font, followed by 'OF CHIROPRACTIC' in a large, bold, outlined font. Underneath, '(KI-RO-PRAK-TIK)' is written in a smaller font. At the bottom, 'ESTABLISHED 17 YEARS!' and 'Davenport, Iowa, U.S.A.' are prominently displayed. The advertisement includes several illustrations: a building on the left, a palm tree in the center, and another building on the right. There are also two circular portraits of men, one of whom is identified as 'D. J. PALMER, D.C. SECRETARY'. A banner on the right side reads 'COR. SECOND AND BRADY STS.'. At the bottom left, there is a small block of text: 'THIS SCHOOL HAS THE BEST COLLECTION OF PATHOLOGICAL AND ANOMALOUS SPECIMENS IN OSTEOLOGY OF ANY SCHOOL IN AMERICA.'
